BUMC's one-year discipleship plan continues on Wednesday nights. Read about the upcoming offerings below, and then go to our website for a preview of more studies to look forward to in 2018!

“Town Hall Meeting” - November 15th 6:30 to 7:45p—All are invited to an open and informal discussion about life in BUMC with pastors and church leadership. Where is God leading us in ministry? What are our celebrations and concerns? Administration Building, room 207

“An Advent of Grace—A Biblical Approach” - November 29, December 6, 13 6:30 to 7:45p—Advent is a time of expectant waiting and preparation for the celebration of the Nativity of Jesus at Christmas. However, the Word “Advent” is not used in the Bible. What does the Bible say about this season of Advent, and how can we prepare hearts and minds for this “Advent of Grace”? Join Pastor Ralph in the Administration Building, room 205

“Picture Advent” - November 29, December 6, 13 6:30 to 7:45p—Want a creative way to explore the season of Advent through photography? Let's take pictures and share them online as well as in class. If you register online at www.lecfamily.org/advent, you'll receive a daily devotion, along with the biblical theme. Use this devotion to inspire you to take a photo each day and post it online. Join Pastor Barbara in meeting each week and talking about your biblical inspiration. Administration Building, room 207
